The diagram is a house-shaped template. The roof is a large triangle with a smaller triangle inside it, creating a central circle containing the word "Me". Below the roof is a large rectangle representing the main body of the house. Inside this rectangle is a 3x4 grid of 12 empty circles, intended for writing the first letter of each family member's name.

Names Are Important

At home, who takes care of you most? If it's your "mom", do you know her name?
Whoever it is for you, practice writing their first and last name.

Family Bingo

Player: You get 4 bingo homes so you can play 4 times. Fill all the circles with a letter(s) that represents a person in any order you want. You will need crayons to match the color of the people in the word bank.

Word Bank

How to play: When the leader signs (or says) a person from the word bank, you color your matching circle. Winner needs 4 across. This game can also be played using the numbers. Option: To reinforce knowing important names, children can also say the names of the people on their bingo card.
